

ADAA: Artwork Highlights at the New York Art Fair

By Sam Gaskin

New York

28 February 2020

Neither the biggest nor the boldest New York art fair, The Art Show nevertheless presented in-depth exhibitions by wonderful, often overlooked artists.

David Kordansky Gallery, ADAA The Art Show, New York (27 February–1 March 2020). Courtesy Ocula. Photo: Charles Roussel.

Organised by the Art Dealers Association of America (ADAA), The Art Show returned to the Park Avenue Armory this week. More than half of this year's 70 booths were solo presentations, including standout exhibitions by Jeffrey Gibson and Mika Tajima.

Anthony Meier Fine Arts, ADAA The Art Show, New York (27 February–1 March 2020). Courtesy Ocula. Photo: Charles Roussel.

Anthony Meier Fine Arts, San Francisco

Born in 1983, Rodrigo Cass lives and works in São Paulo, Brazil. From a distance, works in his series 'Sem Título (provisory)' (2019) resemble screen prints or risographs, but on closer inspection they have surprising three-dimensionality achieved with concrete and tempera on linen.